

John Ahren

John Ahren is our latest Irish owner. We've learned John has quite an assortment of lathes in his shop and we're happy he's added an American Beauty to the mix.

Hi Brent, please find photo of myself and my American Beauty. What is there to say about it except that it is all I expected and wanted in a lathe I am delighted with it.

I am delighted that you have Irish blood in you, we love to hear that in Ireland. The name English is well known in Co's Limerick and Tipperary.

As my shop is on the side of the street and I am the Chairman of the Cork Chapter (the largest in Ireland) I have many callers so the American Beauty will get plenty of viewing and recommendations.

Brent I thank you for the interest and efficiency you have shown, that in itself is a reason for anyone to deal with you.
